Sacramental Information

Baptism: If you are seeking the Baptism of an infant, please contact the parish office at 250-388-5571. As Baptism is the first Sacrament of initiation into the Christian faith, we expect that the parents (or guardians) desire to raise the child in the Christian faith and will attend Mass regularly.

Upcoming dates available for baptisms will be the weekends of:

— 2026 —		— 2027 —
Prep Class	Baptism	Prep Class	Baptism
Nov 7	Nov 28 (5pm)	Jan 9 Mar 13	Jan 31 (9 am) Apr 4 (11 am)

Marriage: Because the Church is deeply concerned about each marriage, couples are asked to give a minimum of six months' notice prior to the intended date of their wedding. Church policy requires that marriages be performed in your home parish – unless you are registered and attend elsewhere.

Funeral: Individual arrangements with a priest. Begin by calling the parish office.

WELCOME! You enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. As a baptized person, you enter it as a son or daughter of the Father in Christ. Come in then with humility of mind, joy of heart and thanks on your lips. Acknowledge the Lord's presence in the Tabernacle and adore him. Come in and pause in prayer in the midst of your busy life and its many worries. Be grateful to those who, for the glory of God and in honour of St. Andrew, built this place of worship with faith and sacrifice, and sanctified it with their songs and prayers.

Anyone who wishes to practice the Catholic faith by attending this Cathedral church may consider St. Andrew's as his/her own parish, no matter where one lives on the lower island. You simply need to register. Registration forms are available in the Cathedral Narthex. Simply fill it out and place your completed form in the collection basket.

Ministry to the Homebound

If you find yourself pregnant and in need of accompaniment during your pregnancy, Respect Life Ministry is here for you. We have a broad means of support during and after the pregnancy. Call Annette at Respect Life Ministry to learn more: 250-812-0087

Celebrating Vocations at the Cathedral

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart... and your neighbor as yourself."

(Matthew 22:37-39)

Love of God and love of neighbor are inseparable. Vocations flourish when we love deeply and selflessly, beginning in our homes and parishes.

Who in your life has modeled selfless love? How can you do the same this week?

Pray for an increase in love within families, parishes, and communities, that more people may answer God's call to serve.

Every vocation is rooted in this twofold commandment of love. Priesthood, consecrated life, and sacramental marriage call us to give ourselves fully to God while serving others with compassion and selflessness. How is God inviting you to live out this love in a vocation that blesses both Him and those around you? Talk to Fr. Dean or the Director of Vocations for the Diocese: Fr. David Hogman: dhogman@rcdvictoria.org.

✝ Rosary for Vocations

A parish rosary for vocations (and for our seminarians) is said at 8:25AM every Saturday morning before Adoration. We know the need for ordained priests in our parish, our diocese, and throughout the world is great.

You are invited, for those who are able to consider offering up a little sacrifice of personal comfort to wake early and come join fellow parishioners in prayer for this important petition. If you cannot do it every Saturday, think about coming once or twice a month. For those who cannot be there in person, consider praying at home at about the same time in union of spirit.

We are also looking for more volunteers to lead the Rosary. If you are interested, please text or email Bemadette on 250-896-4136 or bemadette.oconnor@wsp.com

From the Rector's Desk

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 25, 2026

The tragedy at CFB Wainwright in Alberta has left four young men dead and many more armed forces personnel recovering with varied injuries in hospital. God be with them, their families and all who will be mourning.

I also want to acknowledge with prayerful hope the recent passing into eternal life of two men who were active and ever present at St. Andrew's. George Tse was one of our stewards, the father of two grown daughters one of whom is consistently present serving as a Sunday 11:00 usher. Rodger Gregory seemed to be at every Mass ready to offer a fist bump to celebrants readying for the opening procession and then shuffling to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist before all else started processing. I'll miss both and as details are finalized with families, we'll do our best to inform the parish of funeral arrangements.

The good news coming out of Alberta is their referendum decision to remain in Confederation. Having grown up partly in Edmonton, learning to ski on Rabbit Hill and with fond childhood memories of Klondike Days, it's somewhat sentimental. Having said that, the maintenance of unity is strained everywhere it seems. Diversity has been all the rage, but diversity without a unifying core lends itself to division and worse. This seems particularly relevant as we have just gone to the municipal polls and are (at time of writing) about to go the Provincial polls. God bless all who serve politically. However, Canadians, as well as everyone else need to remember and honour the Blessed Trinity, in whom we find the only perfect balance of diversity within unity. But that's for a homily later!

As mentioned briefly at a Mass last weekend, the Holy Spirit seems to be inspiring us on all cylinders. The Men's Conference seems to have met a deep need for many to explore and commit themselves to a healthy and holy Christ-centered masculinity at the service of God and others. This was followed by the celebration of the sacraments of Reconciliation and the Holy Mass, which grounds and invigorates us each week. Mass was followed by the boisterous and lively ministries for Young Adults whom I'm leading through the Book of Acts, and a happy band of high school disciples with their leaders enjoying food and growth in faith.

On Sunday, the highlight of my week, I was happy to preside and preach at 3 Masses, and all this amidst considerable family responsibilities as I juggle vocational abundance. In our spiritual tradition, the saints would advocate that when the 'going gets busy', the busy get praying. This passage from Isaiah is a good reminder for me: "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint" (Isaiah 40:31) A beautiful admonition and holy counsel for me, and I suspect a few others.

Our Diocesan leadership days take place (October 26-30) in Gold River this year where we'll focus on Indigenous Relations, and the well-being of our clergy and leadership. I look forward to bunking with Fr. Claude, as I did last year in Comox and continuing friendships with many, as well as getting to know new leaders in the Diocese of Victoria. Doesn't seem that long ago in 1999 I was welcomed into the Presbyteral fellowship feeling very much the newbie outsider. Now I feel strangely 'senior' as I offer priestly ministry in my advanced years.

Upon return next week, I'll offer a holy hour after the All Saints, October 31st 5 p.m. Mass with a young adult fellowship to follow. November 1st I'll be inviting children at morning Masses to bring a photo of a family/loved one who has died so we can talk about praying for 'all souls'. Finally, I hope you'll respond to the Bishop's Appeal and make a contribution for the good of our Diocesan family (as well as potentially recoup funds for new Cathedral carpeting). I hope we can exceed the 333 donors who gave last year.

Peace in Christ.

Fr. Dean

I'm trying to learn more about Catholic priestly leadership at the feet of holy St. Joseph.
