Sacramental Information

Baptism: If you are seeking the Baptism of an infant, please contact the parish office at 250-388-5571. As Baptism is the first Sacrament of initiation into the Christian faith, we expect that the parents (or guardians) desire to raise the child in the Christian faith and will attend Mass regularly.

Upcoming dates available for baptisms will be the weekends of:

— 2026 —		— 2027 —
Prep Class	Baptism	Prep Class	Baptism
Nov 7	Nov 28 (5pm)	Jan 9 Mar 14	Jan 31 (9 am) Apr 4 (11 am)

Marriage: Because the Church is deeply concerned about each marriage, couples are asked to give a minimum of six months' notice prior to the intended date of their wedding. Church policy requires that marriages be performed in your home parish – unless you are registered and attend elsewhere.

Funeral: Individual arrangements with a priest. Begin by calling the parish office.

WELCOME! You enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. As a baptized person, you enter it as a son or daughter of the Father in Christ. Come in then with humility of mind, joy of heart and thanks on your lips. Acknowledge the Lord's presence in the Tabernacle and adore him. Come in and pause in prayer in the midst of your busy life and its many worries. Be grateful to those who, for the glory of God and in honour of St. Andrew, built this place of worship with faith and sacrifice, and sanctified it with their songs and prayers.

Anyone who wishes to practice the Catholic faith by attending this Cathedral church may consider St. Andrew's as his/her own parish, no matter where one lives on the lower island. You simply need to register. Registration forms are available in the Cathedral Narthex. Simply fill it out and place your completed form in the collection basket.

Ministry to the Homebound

If you know of anyone who cannot make it to Mass each week due to sickness or infirmity, and who would like to receive Communion in their home, care homes, or hospital, please contact the office at 250-388-5571 or by email standrewscathedral@gmail.com.

If you find yourself pregnant and in need of accompaniment during your pregnancy, Respect Life Ministry is here for you. We have a broad means of support during and after the pregnancy. Call Annette at Respect Life Ministry to learn more: 250-812-0087

Celebrating Vocations at the Cathedral

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

(Matthew 22:21)

Everything we have is a gift from God. When we offer our time, talents, and hearts back to Him, we live out our vocation fully.

How can we use our gifts in service to God and His Church?

Pray for generous hearts that use God's blessings for the good of others.

While we make choices in our daily lives, our ultimate allegiance belongs to God. Every vocation, priesthood, consecrated life, or holy matrimony, invites us to surrender our will to His, offering our lives in loving service. Consider where God is calling you to place His will above your own. Talk to Fr. Dean or the Director of Vocations for the Diocese: Fr. David Hogman: dhogman@rcdvictoria.org.

✠ Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, bless your Church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state, and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son so that in him, with him and through him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully always and everywhere. With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Library Spotlight

Did you know that we have a library at St. Andrew's Cathedral? Tucked away at the Parish Centre, the St. Andrew's library is full of hidden gems, from classic works of theology and spirituality to newer titles on faith, prayer, and everyday Christian living.

We also have a children's section, perfect for young readers and their families. Whether you're deepening your own faith or introducing your little ones to theirs, there's something here for you!

From the Rector's Desk

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 18, 2026

"I never knew what worship was, as an objective fact, till I entered the Catholic Church, and was partaker of its offices of devotion". St. John Henry Newman.

On October 9, it was a delight for me to display the relic of one of my heavenly mentors, as well as the memorabilia of his beatification in Birmingham U.K. at a Mass celebrated by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010. This anticipates the month of 'remembrance' when we'll once again hang the banners with the names of Cathedral parishioners who have gone before us and display some relics of saints who cheer us on from heaven. We need some heavenly intervention as we head to the polls and pray for our municipal and provincial leaders. I'm writing from Cedar Hill Rec Centre where I've finished an early morning squash game and its serving as an advance polling stations. Citizens are pouring in. The public square needs the Lord and a return to his ethic of the primacy of the love of God, neighbor and ourselves – in that order. God bless our democracy and guide our leaders in peace, justice and charity.

Our ministry fair initiative appears to be a continued blessing. Apparently about 5 garden keeners were able to receive some orientation from our chief volunteer and we're all really grateful for the assistance. Those interested in helping with our flower arranging are also scheduled for a visit and orientation this week and again we're grateful for the interest shown in serving the Lord. I'm preparing this week for the unusual speaking assignment at the "Mission of Masculinity" seminar this coming Saturday. Last week was the seminar that Respect Life ministry also hosted called the Catholic Way of Dying with Dignity and I was privileged to speak there also. Attendance was robust and the speakers and subjects were both faithful and inspiring. I think all who attended were encouraged in faith, hope and love. Thanks to all who coordinated and spoke.

I'm just getting the news that Pope Leo XIV has had a lobe of a lung removed after a diagnosis on cancer. Comes as a bit of a shock and we'll all need to be praying for his complete healing. Holy Mary, St. Joseph and St. Luke pray for him!

I hope your Thanksgiving celebrations were a source of divine and earthly joy.

God bless you and you families.

Fr. Dean

Stella Maris

We had mass last Saturday and about 20 attended. Fr Marc Parent celebrated the mass. The crew came out late because they had a meeting. Mass started about 30 minutes late. We finished the mass at around 10pm and had dinner. One of the crew had her birthday so we also brought a cake for her. It was quite hectic because they had to rush back to the ship by 11pm.

All in all, a good way to end the season.

Thank you for your prayers. Please say a Hail Mary in thanksgiving for the great things the Lord has done for our ministry through your prayers. One for our benefactors, volunteers, intercessors, that God will bless them abundantly. One for wisdom to plan for next year.

From the Desk of Respect Life Ministry: The Shepherd: A Call to Protect Life

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus tells the parable of the lost sheep, revealing the heart of a shepherd who tirelessly seeks and protects the one who is vulnerable and in need.

Throughout Scripture, shepherds are entrusted with the care and protection of their flock, often enduring hardship and danger to keep them safe. Their commitment reflects the mission of Respect Life Ministry: to accompany, defend, and care for the most vulnerable among us.

As followers of Christ, we are called not only to affirm the value of every human life but also to protect and support those whose dignity and lives are at risk.

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is our model: "The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). May we strive to reflect His love by standing with and caring for all God's children.

St. John Paul II (1920 – 2005)

Feast Day: October 22nd 2026

Born Karol Wojtyła in Poland, John Paul II was elected pope on October 16, 1978, the first non-Italian pontiff in 455 years. His pontificate lasted over twenty-six years, among the longest in history.

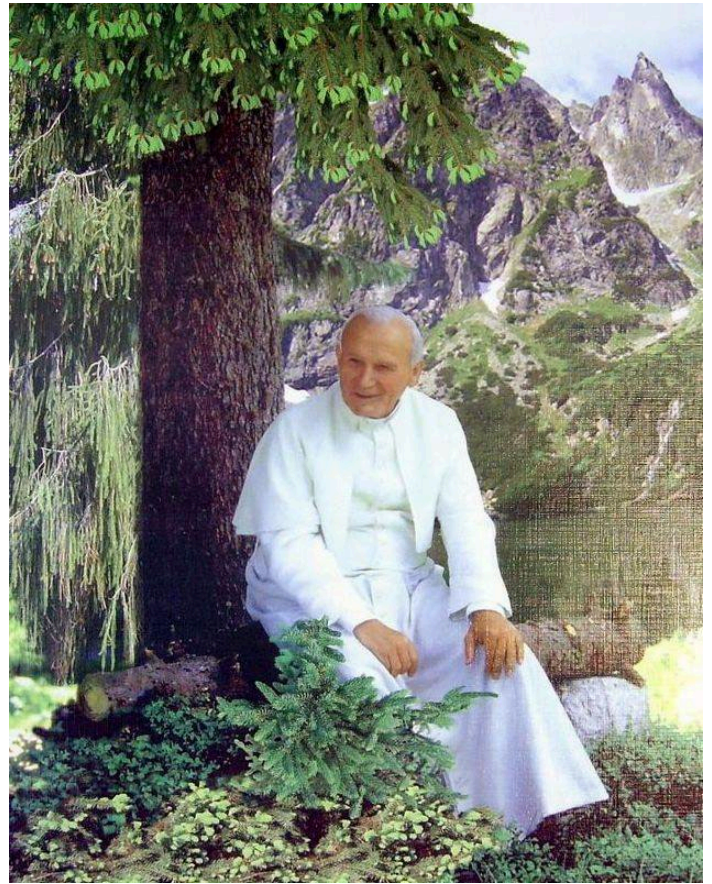

He reshaped how the papacy engaged the world, travelling to more than 120 countries and gathering vast crowds wherever he went. In 1985 he founded World Youth Day, inviting young people to encounter Christ and one another. His 1979 pilgrimage to Poland is widely credited with inspiring the movement that helped bring about the peaceful end of communism in Europe.

He was a prolific teacher, authoring 14 encyclicals, including Redemptor Hominis, Evangelium Vitae, and Fides et Ratio, and delivering the Theology of the Body. He promulgated the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992, strengthened dialogue with Judaism, Islam, and other Christian communities, and called the Church to a Great Jubilee in 2000. He also instituted Divine Mercy Sunday.

An avid outdoorsman, he found prayer and renewal in creation. As a young priest and bishop, he kayaked, hiked, and camped with student groups in Poland's mountains and lakes; as pope he slipped away to ski and walk in the Italian alps and Apennines.

Even as illness limited him in later years, he offered a powerful witness to the dignity of suffering. He died on April 2, 2005, was beatified in 2011, and canonized in 2014.

Join us in marking his feast day on Thursday, October 22, as we give thanks for his witness and ask for his intercession.

St. John Paul II, pray for us.
