Sacramental Information

Baptism: If you are seeking the Baptism of an infant, please contact the parish office at 250-388-5571. As Baptism is the first Sacrament of initiation into the Christian faith, we expect that the parents (or guardians) desire to raise the child in the Christian faith and will attend Mass regularly.

Upcoming dates available for baptisms will be the weekends of:

— 2026 —
Prep Class	Baptism	Prep Class	Baptism
Jan 10	Jan 24/25	July 4	July 25/26
Mar 7	Mar 21/22	Sep 12	Sep 26/27
May 9	May 30/31

Marriage: Because the Church is deeply concerned about each marriage, couples are asked to give a minimum of six months' notice prior to the intended date of their wedding. Church policy requires that marriages be performed in your home parish – unless you are registered and attend elsewhere.

Funeral: Individual arrangements with a priest. Begin by calling the parish office.

Ministry to the Homebound

If you know of anyone who cannot make it to Mass each week due to sickness or infirmity, and who would like to receive Communion in their home, care homes, or hospital, please contact the parish office by phone (250-388-5571) or by email (standrewscathedral@gmail.com).

Welcome! You enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. As a baptized person, you enter it as a son or daughter of the Father in Christ. Come in then with humility of mind, joy of heart and thanks on your lips. Acknowledge the Lord's presence in the Tabernacle and adore him. Come in and pause in prayer in the midst of your busy life and its many worries. Be grateful to those who, for the glory of God and in honour of St. Andrew, built this place of worship with faith and sacrifice, and sanctified it with their songs and prayers.

Anyone who wishes to practice the Catholic faith by attending this Cathedral church may consider St. Andrew's as his/her own parish, no matter where one lives on the lower island. You simply need to register:

- ☐ New parishioner
- ☐ Current parishioner (change of address)

When others deride us

Lk 23:35-43

Liz Summers

At school there was a little boy who could not do the things as well as the other children could. He didn't cry in front of his class as he sat on the bench under a cloud of darkness, but inside, his heart wept. He had adopted the names people called him. Perhaps the class teams were worried that they would not win if he was on their side.

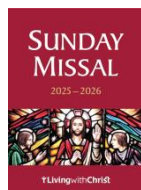

The Gospel today might have been written just for him. Jesus was scoffed at by the leaders. Were they afraid he might be a challenge to their power? They derided him, mocking their conception of his worth, saying, "He saved others, let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his chosen one."

The good thief is both a wonderful model for our behavior and also a beautiful example of closeness to God. Like him, every one of us needs to treat others in this way. "Fear God, since {...we} are under the same sentence of condemnation."

Each person we ridicule was created by God just like us. They will be judged by God, just as we will. We might not ridicule them with words, but we might judge with our eyes, our gestures, and our snubs.

Why do we judge? Of what are we afraid? Yet, freed from the fear that others would bring us down, how joyful we would be. The little schoolboy would hold hands with the athlete, and darkness would disappear. O Lord, as you reside in us today, please take away our fears.

Christ, The King

2026 Sunday Missals

Sunday Missals for the 2025–2026 liturgical year are available for purchase ($5) from the parish office while supplies last.

From the Rector's Desk

Solemnity of Christ, the King of the Universe:
November 23, 2025

As is the beautiful norm, our Cathedral bustles with holy activity each weekend when we gather for Sunday Masses that are the source and summit of our faith. Friday of last weekend, we also hosted the "Beautiful Baroque" concert of the Early Music Society which sold out at 600 tickets. It was a delight not only to enjoy the small exceptionally talented orchestra, but also to wander amongst many in attendance and practice evangelistic hospitality. Admittedly, it's also a little help with our needed revenue stream to fund the operating costs of the Cathedral's mission and ministry. The next night we hosted Fr. Eduardo Santos and parishioners of Our Lady of Fatima (pictured) at the 5:00 p.m. Mass for their Jubilee Year of Hope pilgrimage through the Holy Door of St. Andrew's:

Speaking of our Patron, we're coming up on his Feast on November 30th. (It will be trumped by Advent 1 this year but we'll still acknowledge him). Starting this Saturday, I intend to bless a holy icon of the first Apostle and have it displayed for a daily Novena which will wind down this liturgical year and prayerfully wind us up for the next. As successfully implemented after last year's Sunday Advent Masses, I hope to invite members of the RCIA community seeking reception into full communion to share what draws them to Christ and the Catholic Church. I believe we'll be inspired. Significantly, another initiative was launched after last Sunday's 11:00 a.m. Mass with an invitation to all who wished to be prayed for by one of four trained intercessor teams of two people. This was a holy experiment, to see if the Word and Sacrament of Christ's presence at Mass could extend through the loving community of the baptized in compassionate prayer. Annette and the organizers were pleasantly surprised by the numbers of people who took advantage of the opportunity, but regrettably some weren't able to wait for their turn. We have every intention to offer this again on December 14, and if volunteers step up, to add the 9:00 a.m. Mass to the 11.

This coming weekend, some of us will attend the Carols of Hope fundraiser for the new Church being constructed for the Our Lady of the Rosary Parish in Langford. A recent drone video of the construction site reveals a big beautiful Church and Hall that will be so welcomed and needed by the rapidly growing community on the Westshore. God bless their efforts to complete this huge undertaking.

This weekend we'll enjoy baptisms at the Saturday 5 p.m. Mass, and a number of adult confirmations at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Sent out from all the Cathedral Sacramental joy, I'll be off to prison once again to offer the Lord's loving liberating presence in Word and Sacraments to the prisoners at William Head. Next weekend, rather than the usual Young Adult oriented 'Holy Hour', I'd like to invite the community to a meeting with me to discuss leadership and planning in the Parish Centre following the Saturday 5 p.m. Mass. I certainly wouldn't want the elders of our parish to feel neglected, so I invite all of "US" over 65's to a post Mass gathering on Thursday in the Parish Centre for some faithful frivolity.

Finally, thanks to the few people who heard my challenge to get active and service Christ and his mission if not already, who expressed interest in getting involved. Bless you and everyone else.

Fr. Dean

Join the Intercessors of St. Andrew's

Do you have a heart for intercessory prayer and would like to see the renewal of our parish community? Unbeknownst to many, for over a year there has been a small group of individuals who pray every week for the mission at St. Andrew's Cathedral. Prayer always precedes and undergirds renewal in the Holy Spirit and missionary activity. Prayer leads to salvation, sanctification and service. I would like to invite anyone interested to join the Intercessors of St. Andrew's ministry and dedicate yourself to pray for St. Andrew's cathedral community and the fulfilment of its mission to lead all to salvation through Jesus Christ. In order to enrol as a member of this ministry, please contact fmfagan21@gmail.com to be added to our member's list and receive regular updates. Your Commitment:

1 hour per week (or more!) to pray for Fr. Dean, anyone involved in parish ministry, and the fulfillment of the mission at St. Andrew's Cathedral. This private time of prayer could be taken at any point throughout the week, as your schedule allows. This weekly one hour private prayer period includes:

- The Intercessors of St. Andrew's Prayer (included below)
- To pray for any special intentions sent out occasionally by the Rector or the Intercessor Coordinator.
- Additionally, whatever form of prayer you feel led to pray, such as the rosary, adoration, scripture, worship music, meditation, etc. offered for the cause.

Intercessor's of St Andrew's Prayer:

"Heavenly Father, You sent Jesus, Your Son, "to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." Luke 4:18-19. We earnestly pray now for the renewal of St. Andrew's Cathedral; give our community missionary zeal, courage to share our faith with others, and create welcoming environments that are conducive for conversion to Your Son Jesus, who gave all of Himself to reach us. We offer all of His Acts, His Sacrifices and His Life in reparation for all the many ways that we, St. Andrew's Cathedral community, have not lived up to the mission entrusted to us by God. Give all those in leadership the grace to rely completely on the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all decisions and the willingness to make necessary changes even when difficult. Build in us a generous community of missionary disciples, bold in our efforts and ready to give of our time, talent and treasure. Give us a renewed vision for our parish, under Fr. Dean Henderson and Bishop Gary's shepherding, and hearts on fire for the proclamation of the gospel to all within our parish boundaries. Let all who enter through our church doors, through our invitation, experience a life changing encounter with Jesus our Saviour, and His body the church community. Mother Mary, star of the New Evangelization, intercede for us, help us fulfil your Son's mission and lead us always closer to Him, our Refuge and Strength. We ask this all in Jesus's Holy Name. Amen.

News from the Diocese

- In recognition of the World Day of the Poor on 16 November 2025, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops has issued a pastoral letter by the Episcopal Commission for Justice and Peace titled "Our Daily Bread: Food Security and the Call to Solidarity." Centred on the themes of solidarity, harmony, and harvest, the pastoral letter highlights the current challenges to food security, both globally and in Canada. Read the full pastoral letter here: https://www.cccb.ca/wp-content/uploads/2025/11/Our-Daily-Bread_EN.pdf

- The Holy See and the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCC) released a joint statement on November 15, 2025, announcing that Pope Leo XIV has gifted 62 Indigenous artifacts to the CCCC. The CCCC will proceed, as soon as possible, to transfer these artifacts to the National Indigenous Organizations (NIOs). The NIOs will then ensure that the artifacts are reunited with their communities of origin. Read the full press release here: <https://www.rcdvictoria.org/indigenous/pope-leo-xivs-gift-of-indigenous-artifacts-to-the-cccc>

- Pope Leo XIV has released his message to young people for the 40th World Youth Day 2025. This year's celebration will take place on November 23, 2025, the Solemnity of Christ the King, with the theme: "You also are my witnesses, because you have been with me" (Jn 15:27). Read the Holy Father's full message here: <https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/messages/youth/documents/20251007-messaggio-xl-gmg.html>

- The Serra Club in formation, a Catholic lay organization dedicated to promoting and supporting vocations, meets the last week of every month in different parishes. Their November meeting will be on Wednesday, November 26th, at Our Lady of Fatima Parish (4635 Elk Lake Drive, Victoria). Mass for vocations will start at 6:00 pm, and will be followed by a talk by Fr. David Hogman about his journey to the priesthood. His mother, Rev. Michelle Hogman, will also be sharing the experience of being the mother of a Catholic priest. After the talk, all are invited to stay for treats and fellowship, a chance to connect, share, and learn more about how you can encourage and support vocations in the Church. For more information about Serra Club, please email: victoria@serrainternational.org

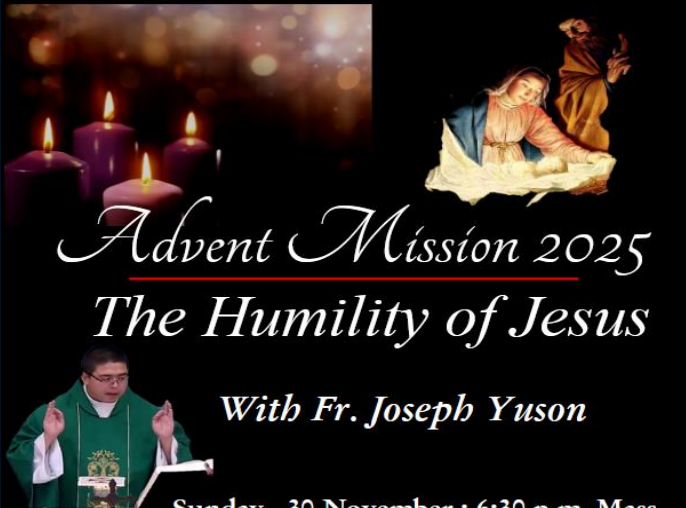

- Registration is now open for the annual Diocese of Victoria Camp Homewood Retreat, taking place from January 30 to February 1, 2026, at Camp Homewood on Quadra Island. Youth in grades 7–12 are invited to register for this weekend retreat. This year's theme is "Blessed Are You." The cost is $195 per participant, which includes all food, accommodation, and activities. Please register at: <https://camp-homewood-2025.eventbrite.ca>.

For more information, please contact: stpatrickhw@gmail.com

- Mount St. Mary Hospital will host its annual Christmas Market on Saturday, November 29th, from 10:00 am–2:30 pm at 861 Fairfield Road. Browse local vendors offering handmade gifts, baked goods, plants, Christmas décor, and more—plus enjoy live entertainment and a White Elephant Sale. Admission is free—everyone is welcome!

- All are invited to attend a special celebration in honour of Our Lady of Guadalupe on Sunday, December 7, 2025. Bishop Gary Gordon will celebrate Mass alongside Fr. Eduardo de Silva at 12:30 pm at Our Lady of Fatima (4635 Elk Lake Drive, Victoria). Community festivities will follow the Mass.

HOLODOMOR REMEMBRANCE DAY

Sunday, November 23rd at 5-7 pm at the Ukrainian Cultural Center, 3277 Douglas Street

2025 marks the 92nd anniversary of the Holodomor genocide (death by starvation) of several million Ukrainians imposed by Russian president Joseph Stalin in 1932-33. History repeats itself as Russia, under Vladimir Putin, is again waging a brutal war against Ukraine considered by many to be a new genocide. The Ukrainian Canadian Congress (UCC) Victoria Branch, invites the general public to join with the local Ukrainian community to honor those who died in the Holodomor. The program includes a memorial service led by Father Yuriy Vyshnevskyy of St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church, songs, testimonials and a video presentation. Voluntary donations accepted for the Canada-Ukraine Foundation towards humanitarian aid in Ukraine, and to support UCC's local projects. General admission: FREE

ST. ANDREW

NOVEMBER 30

O Glorious St. Andrew, you were the first to recognize and follow the Lamb of God. With your friend St. John you remained with Jesus for that first day, for your entire life, and now throughout eternity. As you led your brother St. Peter to Christ, and many others after him, draw us also to Him. Teach us to lead others to Christ solely out of love for Him, and dedication in His service. Help us to learn the lesson of the Cross and to carry our daily crosses without complaint so that they may carry us to Jesus. Amen.
