Sacramental Information

Baptism: If you are seeking the Baptism of an infant, please contact the parish office at 250-388-5571. As Baptism is the first Sacrament of initiation into the Christian faith, we expect that the parents (or guardians) desire to raise the child in the Christian faith and will attend Mass regularly.

Upcoming dates available for baptisms will be the weekends of:

— 2026 —		— 2027 —
Prep Class	Baptism	Prep Class	Baptism
Nov 7	Nov 28 (5pm)	Jan 9 Mar 14	Jan 31 (9 am) Apr 4 (11 am)

Marriage: Because the Church is deeply concerned about each marriage, couples are asked to give a minimum of six months' notice prior to the intended date of their wedding. Church policy requires that marriages be performed in your home parish – unless you are registered and attend elsewhere.

Funeral: Individual arrangements with a priest. Begin by calling the parish office.

WELCOME! You enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. As a baptized person, you enter it as a son or daughter of the Father in Christ. Come in then with humility of mind, joy of heart and thanks on your lips. Acknowledge the Lord's presence in the Tabernacle and adore him. Come in and pause in prayer in the midst of your busy life and its many worries. Be grateful to those who, for the glory of God and in honour of St. Andrew, built this place of worship with faith and sacrifice, and sanctified it with their songs and prayers.

Anyone who wishes to practice the Catholic faith by attending this Cathedral church may consider St. Andrew's as his/her own parish, no matter where one lives on the lower island. You simply need to register. Registration forms are available in the Cathedral Narthex. Simply fill it out and place your completed form in the collection basket.

Celebrating Vocations at the Cathedral

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

(Matthew 21:42)

Christ is the cornerstone of every vocation and every act of love. When we build our lives on Him, we become living stones in His Church.

How is Christ the foundation of your daily decisions and relationships?

Pray for strength to keep Christ at the center of your life and for vocations rooted firmly in faith.

Jesus, the cornerstone, calls us to build His Church. In holy matrimony, couples become cornerstones of love and faith for a family. Have you talked to your children about their vocation? Pray with them and walk alongside them as they discern how God may be calling them to build up God's Church.

✝ Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, bless your Church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state, and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son so that in him, with him and through him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully always and everywhere. With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Library Spotlight

Did you know that we have a library at St. Andrew's Cathedral? Tucked away at the Parish Centre, the St. Andrew's library is full of hidden gems, from classic works of theology and spirituality to newer titles on faith, prayer, and everyday Christian living.

We also have a children's section, perfect for young readers and their families. Whether you're deepening your own faith or introducing your little ones to theirs, there's something here for you!

Pray for Us!

From the Rector's Priest Conference in Halifax NS

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 4, 2026

As a former Anglican clergyman and Oxford sabbatical student, I'm delighted to see that the Universal Church calendar now includes Saint John Henry Newman, our newest Doctor of the Church, on October 9th, the day of his reception into full communion into the 'one true fold'.

I remember distinctly kneeling in his Littlemore chapel, part of a set of renovated horse stables, the very room in which he was received, and praying for his intercession. With a sense of profound gratitude for his heavenly mentorship, I returned to Oxford and Birmingham for a whirlwind 3-day visit to attend Pope Benedict XVI's beatification of Newman which was combined with a historic state invitation by Queen Elizabeth II. Hence at the Friday Mass October 9th, I intend to offer a display of St. Newman beatification memorabilia, but more importantly a first-class relic (strands of his hair) for veneration.

Let us pray with him to God: "lead kindly light".

Fr. Dean

Bishop's Appeal 2026

The Bishop's Appeal begins today! The 2026 Bishop's Appeal theme is: Be the Light. This Appeal is inspired by the words of Jesus who said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life" (John 8:12).

Funds from this Appeal will help share the light of Christ both within our faith community and beyond our borders to support those displaced by war in Lebanon, and in our twinned Diocese of Whitehorse, where the environment is remote and often challenging.

Every gift strengthens our parishes and reaches far beyond, bringing light and love to our communities and the world. Watch Bishop Gary's video and learn more about the 2026 Appeal here: www.rcdvictoria.org/bishops-appeal

Stella Maris

There were two ships on Friday and we have a new volunteer: Alex. He used to work for the Coast Guard and then the Federal government. He's a welcome addition. I got to talk to two of the crew who were going back for a break. Both expressed a difficult life as seafarers. Definitely the pay is better than back home. But it is a difficult life. I also went to Beecher Bay on Saturday. Our friends look well. The ship has a new captain. They are expecting another ship to join them soon. We are also planning a Liturgy of the Word on the last Saturday of the cruise season.

Thank you again for your prayers. They open doors for us.

Please say a Hail Mary through the intercession of St. Francis of Assisi, for the crew who are going home, for their protection and rest; For wisdom to serve through to the end of the season; for the crew of the ships who have ended their season, that God will protect them.

Deacon Philip Yuson

Pope Leo: Medicine must never become the servant of Programmed Death!

"We must reject the temptation to cause death under the guise of false compassion."

Pope Leo first speaks about the dignity of human life. He then states:

I know that for some of you, because of particular illnesses and, at times, terrible pain, your horizon may appear dark, uncertain and without hope. But no human law should ever make you lose the certainty of your dignity. On the contrary, it is precisely in the name of this inalienable dignity of the human person that we must reject the temptation to cause death under the guise of false compassion. It is impossible to regard causing death as something normal. What is legal is not necessarily moral.

Pope Leo then urges healthcare professionals to care and not kill:

Here in Lourdes, the city of the sick and of hope, I appeal to the entire healthcare community to remember the profound meaning of your vocation, which is to care for a suffering person, not to eliminate that person. Yes, dear friends, be passionate servants of life. ...Medicine must never become the servant of programmed death!"

Pope Leo then comments on the vocation of accompanying and caring for the sick.

In this regard, I urge you resolutely to develop structures for palliative care and research. At the same time, I urge you to accompany the sick with the tenderness that we see here in Lourdes, where doctors, nurses, stretcher-bearers, chaplains, pastoral teams serving the sick, and so many others live out their vocation in the service of the dignity of the human person, so that the world may have life. In caring for bodies, you also bind up wounded souls. To you, dear members of the hospitality groups, and to the healthcare workers who devote yourselves to serving your brothers and sisters, I express my deepest gratitude.

He completes his talk by stating that the sick are not a burden.

Dear brothers and sisters who are sick, I want to tell you that you are not a burden. You are the beating heart of our humanity and a precious treasure for the Church. I carry in my prayers the trials you are going through. My thoughts are also with all those who cannot be here and who, from their homes or hospital rooms, are united with us in this gathering. I entrust all of you to the maternal love of the Mother of the Lord, asking her to obtain for you the consolations of her Son Jesus. May God bless and protect you.

Thank you, Pope Leo. Killing is never caring.

Discovering the Strength and Mission of Masculinity

"Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong."
- Corinthians 16:13

A SEMINAR HOSTED BY ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL

SPEAKERS

Fr. Dean Henderson

Sanctified Courage: Leading with a Servant's Heart

True masculinity is not about brute strength, selfish domination, or repressed emotions—it is about sanctified courage, selfless service, and spiritual leadership.

Daniel Alvarez

Created in His Image

Our bodies and desires were created by God for His Glory. They might need transformation in order to achieve this goal but they are not evil in themselves. They are part of who God created us to be as men.

Robert Deacon

Masculinity: A call to service and sacrifice for the good of others.

Masculinity is a call to service and sacrifice for the good of others, and how Christ is the perfect model of masculine sacrifice.

Barnabas Ney

Men on Mission

It is God who initiates the gift of life and since we are made in his image we have "the calling of fatherhood stamped into our own bodies!" Whether our own dads were good or bad examples of fatherhood, we, our very bodies, are made for this great mission.
