Sacramental Information

Baptism: If you are seeking the Baptism of an infant, please contact the parish office at 250-388-5571. As Baptism is the first Sacrament of initiation into the Christian faith, we expect that the parents (or guardians) desire to raise the child in the Christian faith and will attend Mass regularly.

Upcoming dates available for baptisms will be the weekends of:

— 2025 —		— 2026 —
Prep Class	Baptism	Prep Class	Baptism
Nov 8	Nov 22	Jan 10	Jan 24/25
		Mar 7	Mar 21/22
		May 9	May 30/31
		July 4	July 25/26
		Sep 12	Sep 26/27

Marriage: Because the Church is deeply concerned about each marriage, couples are asked to give a minimum of six months' notice prior to the intended date of their wedding. Church policy requires that marriages be performed in your home parish – unless you are registered and attend elsewhere.

Funeral: Individual arrangements with a priest. Begin by calling the parish office.

Ministry to the Homebound

If you know of anyone who cannot make it to Mass each week due to sickness or infirmity, and who would like to receive Communion in their home, care homes, or hospital, please contact the parish office by phone (250-388-5571) or by email (standrewscathedral@gmail.com).

Triumphalism leads away from love & unity

Lk 18:9-14

Liz Summers

An English friend who went to a Protestant school in the times before Vatican II, told me that as a Catholic he was never allowed to attend school assemblies. At that time Catholics were taught that they alone had the one true faith and they kept themselves apart from everyone else. My friend knew the Mass in Latin, loved the Catholic traditions, but had no idea that he could talk to God in English, or about God to anyone not Catholic.

For him, the Second Vatican council opened the door to a much greater unity with God and His people. Suddenly, there he was, not having to sit on the sidelines, afraid to speak about Jesus. Some theologians have labelled the previous behavior as 'triumphalism'; it surely did not align with Paul's message today,

"Through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and all the Gentiles might hear it."

[2Tim4:16-18]

This 'better-than' behavior is reprimanded by Jesus in the Gospel very clearly, in words that are so familiar but often not applied within the institutions to which we belong:

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, but whoever humbles himself, will be exalted."

Our faith is always growing in understanding. We know that when we confess in our Creed the 'One' church, this means all Gods people. Let us pray with Pope Leo XIV for love and unity. God loves each of us no more and no less than any other person he created. Lord Jesus, you came to show us that rules do not bring us closer to You. Please help us to understand and follow your path of love.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 26, 2025

Early last Wednesday morning, with fresh cup of coffee in hand, I opened the Times Colonist and was surprised to see an article and photo of two First Nation friends; a mother and son, Janet and Hudson who hail from Ahousaht near Tofino. The article describes an event at the site of one of our two Catholic residential schools (Christie), to allow elders who attended to vent their feelings prior to a building demolition. The Ahousaht hereditary chiefs hosted the experience recognizing that for some, there is tremendous need for healing after enduring various traumas of childhood loss that the school represents. With the Papal pilgrimage of penance by Pope Francis, combined with my former parish's healing day with 200 First Nation people representatives of our Diocese a few years ago, and administering our Diocesan Indigenous Reconciliation Fund, I have been entering into the sorrow, suffering, resilience and joy of the peoples who went to residential schools since 2012. What you never see in the news however, is the relational stories of truth, reconciliation and friendship building between us. In fact, Tuesday night before the published article, I attended the Nuuchah-nulth culture night at St. Joseph's hall where Janet was dancing and her grandson was leading the drum circle. The grandson regularly refers to me as 'Uncle' because we're family. As Pope Francis said regarding the clergy and the news; we're like airplanes because we only get into the news when we crash! This coming Saturday is a big Ahousaht cultural event at St. Joseph's and organizers have asked if anyone would be willing to volunteer with food prep and clean up. If anyone wants to put reconciliation into action with a bit of volunteer work let me know and I'll put you in touch with the organizer.

It's probably important that you know I'll be supporting the Bishop's appeal and plan to increase my contribution this year. Not only does it support many needs in our Diocesan family, but contributes to the spiritual welfare of really needy brother and sisters in Yukon and overseas. We also hope use the 'parish portion' of $107,000.00 to design and construct a permanent baptistry which is only fitting for a Cathedral.

Outside of our central and foundational Sunday liturgies of the Holy Mass, me and the staff keep very busy with serving peoples spiritual and sacramental needs with weddings, baptisms and funerals. Our staffing is expanding and changing with the addition of Fr. Claude, Anjali in the office and Matthew serving as Pastoral Assistant. Annette continues to offer tremendous pastoral counselling to many, and Rita manages to keep the ship afloat from the office. Steve, our custodian continues to heal from a pulled achilles at home and, with additional support from Michael and others, we limp along trying to keep the parish centre and Cathedral clean. Please join me in praying for our staff and thanking God for them.

Announcement regarding the Director of Musical Worship

On behalf of the Music Hiring Committee (Kathleen, Faye, Phillip, Joseph and Megan), as well as Parish Council, it gives me great joy to inform the parish of St. Andrew's Cathedral that we have selected by God's grace, our new Director of Musical Worship. Iason (pronounced Ya-son) Giagtoglou will commence his leadership January 1, 2026 after he leaves his current position in an American parish of 5 Churches. He is a Greek citizen and received his home country's Fulbright Scholarship with which he obtained his Doctorate in Music Performance on the Piano. He is also an accomplished organist and choral conductor and was well received by our hiring team and choir members when he auditioned in late August. He says "As a pastoral musician, I strive to follow Jesus' example by serving parishioners with humility and care, and by welcoming and supporting all who feel called to ministry regardless of their level of skill or experience." Join me in praying that Iason will obtain the necessary work permit for this position which our Diocesan immigration lawyer is helping with. Please also pray he finds a good 1 bedroom/bathroom accommodation. I am thankful for the diligent effort of the music committee over the past year, but with them, especially thank God for Iason and his ministry to ensure we offer terrific sacramental worship and wonderful community at St. Andrew's.

Vocation Live-In Weekend

There will be a Vocation Live-In on the weekend of Nov. 15 -16 at the Seminary of Christ the King in Mission, BC. Anyone wishing to enter the Seminary in the next couple of years is welcome. For more information phone 604-826-8975 or email rector.minors@sck.ca

Bishop's Appeal

We are united not only within our own diocese, but also with our brothers and sisters in the Diocese of Whitehorse. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal supports pastoral care, sacraments, and outreach in remote and challenging northern communities. On this Commitment Weekend we want to emphasize this commitment. What if your gift could keep their doors open this winter? That's what love and unity look like in action Your gift will truly make a difference.

This year our parish project will be for a new, permanent baptistry for the Cathedral. Our Parish Goal is $ 107,000.

Thank you for your support and dedication to this year's Bishop's Appeal. We know that the postal strike presented some unexpected challenges right at the start of the campaign, and as a result, things began a little slower than usual. However, St. Andrew's has currently received $ 36,627.65 in pledges from 75 registered households.

As the current postal strike is on a rotating basis, the Bishop's Appeal brochure have now been mailed out and you should be receiving your copy shortly. If you don't receive a letter in the mail, copies are available from the Narthex. Completed pledges/donations may be placed in an envelope clearly marked for the Bishop's Appeal and placed in the collection basket. Staff will ensure that these envelopes are then delivered to the Diocesan Appeal office.

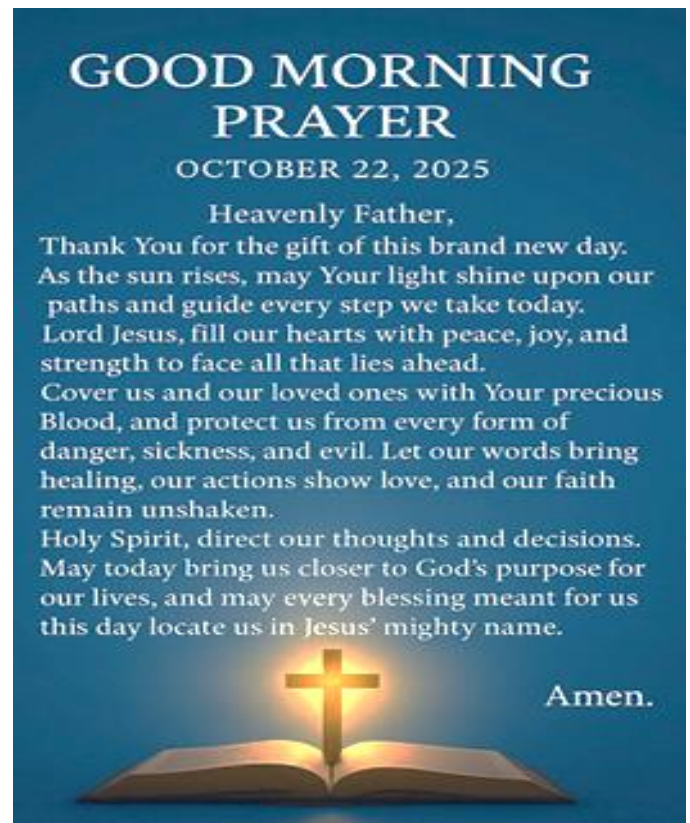

Book of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance will be located in the sanctuary beginning November 1st. You will find forms at the back of the church which you may use to write the names of your loved ones who are deceased and then place the forms in the Book of Remembrance. The banners around the church reveal the names of those buried from the Cathedral over the years.

Lectio Divina

You're invited to come and participate in this traditional Christian practice of 'Divine Reading' on Friday mornings from 10:45 – 11:15 am, starting Nov 7th in the parish library. The format will be the reading of a short passage of scripture (repeated once), followed by 15 minutes of meditation to listen to how God is speaking to you through this passage and respond in prayer, and then a time of shared reflection. The goal of lectio divina is not intellectual study, but a deep, personal encounter with God's word that can transform one's life. No registration necessary. For more information, please contact Rod Crutcher at rodcrutcher@me.com.

Ministry to Seafarers' News

The season ended last week, Oct 18th. We had quite a good season and we will be planning for the coming year. Thank you for your prayers, it has opened more doors for the ministry that I have expected. A few of the crew wanted to talk to me. Ray brought 2 of the crew to the Cathedral on Friday where we had coffee and some snacks. Frank Peters brought some of the crew Downtown for last minute shopping. We will now switch to planning for next year as well as look after our friends in Beecher Bay. Please say a Hail Mary for the following intentions:

1. Thanksgiving for a good year and wisdom to plan for next year.
2. Thanksgiving to our Benefactors, and intercessors that God will reward them more for their generosity.
3. Thanksgiving to our volunteers and their wives, without them we will not be able to minister to seafarers.

The Art of Authentic Listening

Do you want to learn how to listen authentically to another person? Do you want to experience being listened to authentically? We are looking for participants.

The Diocese of Victoria has asked all parishes to facilitate listening circles as part of a program for Diocesan Permanent Pastoral Synods (DPPS). The purpose is to get people used to the process and the concept of listening to each other through answers to questions that the Diocesan Team have formatted. The answers will help us shape action plans for the Diocese in the future. Participation involves 2 hours to meet in small groups to receive instruction, pray, listen, and share.

"While the ancient practice of synodality can be found throughout Church history, where leaders of the Church gathered in a way to listen and discern together, what is different here is this invitation into the practice of synodality is for the people of God. We are all invited to integrate this ancient practice at all levels of the Church - including local, diocesan, national and global - changing how we gather, how we listen, how we include, how we plan, how we discern, and how we move forward together as a people of God. When we build on this style of encounter, when we include different voices and open the space to all, to discern and dream together, we can we strengthen the bonds of love and enrich all aspects of Church life".

To register your interest in participating (or to find out more), please register your name & contact details with the parish office: 250-388-5571 or standrewscathedral@gmail.com
